PERSONAL PAPERS OF WILBUR J. COHEN

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Cohen, Wilbur J. (Wilbur Joseph), 1913-1987

Biographical sketch:

Wilbur J. Cohen served on the Committee on Economic Security from 1934 to 1935, which drafted the Social Security Act. From 1935 to 1956, Cohen held several positions with the Social Security Administration, concluding his service as Director of the Division of Research and Statistics (1953-1956). From 1961 to 1969, he served as Assistant Secretary, Under Secretary, and Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. He was also the Chairman of the National Commission on Unemployment Compensation from 1978 to 1980.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of correspondence, reports, oral history interviews, speeches, drafts, notes, publications, manuscripts, copies of legislation, transcripts, clippings, scrapbooks, and photographs collected by Wilbur J. Cohen throughout his career with government and non-profit organizations. The papers cover Cohen's professional activities, written works, friends and associates, as well as his volunteer service and contain interviews with Mr. Cohen, materials from the courses he taught, background and research materials, in addition to his work and personal files. The papers include materials on healthcare, education, employment, welfare, public policy, safety net programs, aging, poverty, and other social issues. The collection is unarranged but is divided into two series based on how it was accessioned.
