PERSONAL PAPERS OF FRANCES LEWINE

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Lewine, France

Biographical sketch:

Frances Lewine was a journalist and White House correspondent, as well as President of the Women's National Press Club. She served as deputy director of public affairs for the Department of Transportation under President Jimmy Carter.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of newspaper clippings, drafts, correspondence, press releases, transcripts, sound recordings and other materials collected by Frances Lewine during her career as a journalist and public affairs specialist. The papers include materials on Presidential families, White House social events, fashion, travel of the President and First Lady, women's issues, prominent women, as well as Miss Lewine's career, achievements and associates. The papers are divided into three series for textual files, clippings, and sound recordings. Additional sound recordings from this collection have been transferred to the audio-visual department.
