For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Califano, Joseph A., 1931-

Biographical sketch:

Joseph A. Califano was trained as an attorney at Harvard Law School and has practiced law with private firms as well as with the Office of the Judge Advocate General of the United States Navy. He has served as Special Assistant to the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, as General Counsel of the Army, and as Special Assistant to the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense. Mr. Califano was appointed as Special Assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson and served as a top domestic aide. He served as the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare under President Carter. Mr. Califano has authored many publications and has served on numerous boards for private and non-profit organizations.

Scope and content note:

This Collection consists of correspondence, reports, clippings, publications, schedules, logs, directories, invitations, and greeting cards collected by Joseph A. Califano covering his military service, professional activities, voluntary service, achievements, writings, friends, and associates. The papers are mainly related to his service as Special Assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson and include materials on healthcare, substance abuse, legislation, civil rights, assassination of public figures, civil disturbances, crime, Great Society programs, transportation, safety, taxes and the budget.
