Wednesday, Noon

ooooooooo
Kisses for you

Darling:

I didn't know it was so hard to live without you. I've been running in a circle every since you left. Last night I went home to an empty house - no one to meet me with open arms and warm kisses - and not even a cat to aggravate me. Honey I really think all day yesterday and today I've been about 20% efficient - It's difficult to do anything but think of your being gone.

Malcolm took his girl (Lillian) to look for a rooming place and I was asked to go with them - They rode on the front seat and I unfolded and slept on the back one. Didn't know until 10:30 P.M. when Malcolm waked me that I could so peacefully sleep in the rear seat of an auto.

I haven't heard a word from home or from Mr Dick - I doubt that he will come back if we adjourn in August - at the office waiting for me when I got to work late this morning.

You weren't here to get my coffee and spank me out of bed - hence I didn't get to the office until after nine.

Last night I thought over and over again after I got home what a swell kid you have been - A real companion - a model breathheart - a perfect little housewife and a putty nice boss. For a month I've had no kisses, no hugs, no one to bring my towels, to get my clothes from the cleaner, to cook good things for me - in short this month will be hell -

Again I hope you have a lovely trip - you left with a big load on your shoulders - Write me about Cat - Give your Dad & Aunt Effie a big hug for me - I hope they know that I love them a lot for giving me a great little you - I love you - love you - love you - Linda.
