

probably full with Mrs. Johnson and Josefa there but anyway I want to have a visit with them even tho' I don't get to spend the night.)

I shall do a little necessary shopping in Houston ~~Thursday~~, get a session at the beauty parlor Friday morning, and catch a bus or train to Brenham Friday afternoon. And there I

Thanks for the telephone call and two sweet letters.

Monday Morning

Darling -

Here are my plans: I shall leave here Wednesday morning at 7:20 and get to Houston Thursday morning at 7:30. I've written Mrs. Johnson and Uncle George sis ~~is~~ coming and that I'm going to spend the day with them but will go to the hotel at night - unless they happen to have an empty sofa. (I know they are shall meet my love!

If you want to tell me anything, write or wire me at Uncle George's - its 1011 North (or west) Main Street.

I asked Mrs. Johnson to call Alice Brown and tell her I would be in Houston Thursday and Friday morning and that I'd love to see her.

Mary Lou and I have been visiting each other and the program in Brenham sounds grand but absolutely every minute filled - barbecue, bridge party, dinner, cocktails at Richard's, and American Legion Dance!

I'm so anxious to see you and hear all the news, both good and bad, - and kiss away all the troubles if there are any. I think living at Johnson City will be fun - we'll see that it is.

Daddy, my love, until Friday - or whenever you get to Brenham. And best of luck on your speech. Most important of all, take care of yourself. Always love -
