

Tuesday noon

Darling: I had your letter written Sunday this a.m. I enjoyed 2 or 3 times every line even tho' we had talked since you wrote it.

I have just returned from seeing Sec. Jettles re park camp - also saw Tom Corcoran for a moment. Plan to see him again in day or two. Understand Marsh will be here tomorrow and am going to arrange for him to see Pres. re politics in general.

I had dinner last night at Wellys with he and Alice Hopkins and then the three of us drove out to see Cecil and Jack. I had a bottle of beer - played with William and home to a lonely room and hard bed at 10:30. Wanted to call you again but frail & couldn't pay the bill when it comes in.
