

~~February 12, 1962~~

~~Judge Will Burnet
San Marcos
Texas~~

Dear Judge:

While Lyndon is on

Darling:

I can't bear to waste this good paper, so will write to you on it.

I am enclosing copies of some of our letters to the best friends in each county. Mary's letter has explanatory material on it. As to mine, do you think they are alright or not? I prefer an informal, personal letter and have tried to write these just like I talk, but of course more than anything I want to write what will be most fitting to emanate from your office. So criticize them and pencil changes and I will learn for the future. In San Marcos I intend to write, in addition to those already written, Mrs. Kellam and Bryan Wildenthal; in Buda Dr. Lauderdale and Mrs. Birdwell. Also, from my own list, I shall write Mr. J. V. Ash, Will Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Elgin, A. J. McKean, Sen. Fleetwood Richards (perhaps), John Brunner, and John Sharp. For further names I shall have to ask the office. Except, of course, when I get to writing Austin folks. I shall have a number there that I'll want to write.

Senator is in town and just phoned. I'm going down to his room, together with Mary and Nellie, and have a drink. We'll go into the Alabama business thoroughly.

I've been reading Homer Wade's letters and don't find them of any value, really. I suppose Charlie has written you that Mr. Wade need some more money.

That's all for today. Tomorrow I'll try to call on you