Sunday evening
8:40 —

Dearest "Fritz" —

Perhaps I should first clear my conscience by telling you and thro' you all of the office that I was unjustifiably critical about all of your writing. It was a combination of my impatience and postmans delay that provoked the uncalled for comments. The mail has been wonderful the last three days and I'm quite pleased. I know it would do you good to know of the pride which comes to me when I read your letters. ~~Initiative~~ Initiative, sincerity, comprehension and a remarkable facility for adjustment are evidenced in every sentence. I'm almost "as good as I would be looking at" "Nelson Jr" if there could be one — and who knows there may be some day. In the meantime I'm confident the way has brought to me a greater and fuller appreciation of your love and your value and I believe you too may gain some understanding from the experience.

We spent the A.M. in bed. After (lunch - breakfast) we went to the McCarter where we had (punch, sandwiches) for food and real folks for company. Dave just returned and Jesse and John have gone to a show and after writing you in "reading time" and to bed.

Tomorrow we look home with Dockhead and the Management on the plan. Thus far it is going in. Garretson, Corpus & Dan Diego where I worked this week. Next week

I hope to be thro' here and on my way to the Empire at 2 noon with all its pleasant memories.

Today Cooney called John here. I'm sorry because all anxiety will now depress my stay here but somebody in Wash. or Phil in Austr had a locked brain. To all inquiries please have them say "He is working out of Grice, and Seattle and we forward everything daily. Mark your note personal and we will get it to him tomorrow"

I hope you've seen Sam R. Keep in close touch with him and the few others I told you about.

Please continue with me here and if I go to San F or San P it will be forwarded ^{and reach me} 4 hrs. I love you — more tomorrow
