

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY
WASHINGTON

16 February 1942

Dear Lady Bird:

I haven't heard from Charlie about Homer Wade so someone should drop me a brief summary of his letters with quotations concerning the money angle.

I think your letter angle is splendid and hope you can get out 20 or 30 every day.

It is very wise to have Malcolm come by when he can, and I want all of you to be very nice to him and his new wife. I don't know of anyone I would rather rely on than Malcolm when I am out of the office, so talk with him frequently.

Get out your letter of February 6 and turn to page 3. I think all of your suggestions 1,2,3, and 4 are good ones so follow that procedure.

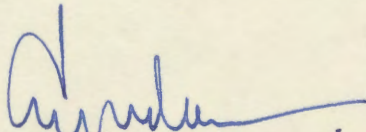

It would be a mistake to sell your car now, and I hope you haven't gone to far with it.

It is hardly necessary to answer letters like the one Brother Low wrote but use your own good judgement because sometimes people forget what they say and start talking about not having received any answer.

I have plenty of clothes--don't want or need any collarless shirts, but when the other ones come send them to me and I will send the collarless ones back to you.

I am still waiting on that social report.

All my love,

Lyndon

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson
1320 House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Give Norman his letter and don't let any of the others read any letters except their own.
The shirts (collarless ones) have arrived. Also the typewriter. Thanks much for the regular letters. They are lifesavers. Love + more love - (Baby Boy) Mrs Lyndon