NAVAL AFFAIRS

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dear Lady Bird:

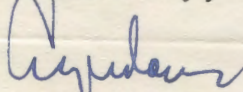

This is Saturday morning. It is cloudy and raining and cold in San Francisco. Your letter written on the 19th has just been delivered and I have read and reread it.

It made me very happy that you had a pleasant visit with Sam. Please make them more frequent.

I am still waiting for that social report that you were going to send me last week. I wonder what happened the evening you spent at the Rows. Have you seen the Forrestalls? Or the Douglass'? Or the Corcorans? If not, I suggest that you try to work out an arrangement to have some of these women like Mildred ~~and~~ Jo Forrestall to come up and have lunch with you at the House restaurant.

Remember that I am expecting that daily letter every morning, and I hope your conscience really hurts when you don't write it.

Sincerely,

Lyndon

Hope the Row report - also Margaret Brown - both 100%o. Sent you a package Saturday. Don't miss. You deserve more. This post pays for the daily letter. Hope you like red velvet.
