August 14, 1951

Dear Lady Bird:

Here are two letters for Lucy and Lynda. I miss all of you very much.

I don't know that I will be able to come on August 27th, but I am certainly shooting at that date. I don't know how I will manage to put it off that long, the way I feel right now.

Certainly sorry to hear of Ruth's misfortune.

Give your Father and all your family my love and remember how much I love you.

Devotedly,

Lyndon B. Johnson
