

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Darling -

You were wonderful with the Ambassadors times yesterday - They must have left feeling they were "manning the bastions" in the face of the foe and the fate of America hung upon them. I was thrilled - and so were they and their husbands, I'll bet.

And you were so sweet - and fair - and

Good in your farewell to the Celestines -

Lynne and I are leaving for New York about 1:30 and returning Friday. We'll buy Fall clothes and see two shows. I hope we'll come back dressing in a way you'll get excited about.

Please let that second helping stay in the kitchen! Zephyr says you've been very good -
I love you -
L.B.
