

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

The President

Personal

Beloved —

You are as brave a man as Harry Truman — or FDR.
— or Lincoln. You can go on to find some peace, some achievement amidst all the pain. You have been strong,
patient, determined
beyond any words
I mine to express.

I honor you for
it. So does most of the country.

To step out now
would be wrong for your country, and I can see nothing but a lonely waste land for your future. Your friends would be frozen in embarrassed
silence and your enemies jeering.

I am not afraid of Time or Lies

on losing money or defeat.

In the final analysis
I can't carry any of the burdens you talked of - so I know its only your choice. But I know you are as brave as any of the thirty-five.

I love you always
