

Re March 31 speech 1968
CJG

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

And now let me
speak to you
a moment
of my personal feelings.
~~I am going~~ It is not important who is elected President of this country in 1968 provided
(1) ~~this search for~~ ~~peace~~
~~conduct of this~~ ~~war goes on with~~ country keeps its commitments to

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

stop aggression
and preserve freedom
while searching
with all its strength
for an honorable
peace — and
(2) the ^{promised} social program for education and health and ~~equal~~ ~~justice~~ for ~~an~~ equal rights for all men and
rebuilding of our cities — so ^{honestly} ~~earnestly~~

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

begun and ~~happily~~ earnestly carried on by ~~my~~
the Congress and
my administration
these last 5 years
continue ~~to~~ on as a part of the fabric of our great land

and
(3) ~~provided~~ the Congress takes prompt & decisive action
to pass a tax bill

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

~~to~~ to maintain the ~~economic~~ stability of the dollar and the economic strength
prosperity of our country upon
which so much
depends for all of us.
All my actions
— popular or unpopular — in the months ahead
shall be devoted to these ~~the~~ aims

~~I call upon my Countrymen to seek only the~~

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

The decision, as always, will
rest in the minds
and the hearts
of the American people.

Good nite