NATIONAL SECURITY FILES, National Intelligence Estimates

For list of folder titles, see page 2.

Scope and content note:

This series contains an index, memorandums, and reports. These intelligence reports known as National Intelligence Estimates (NIEs) and Special National Intelligence Estimates (SNIEs) originated in the Central Intelligence Agency with concurrence of the U.S. Intelligence Board. Topics include the United Nations; world reaction to crises; arms control and disarmament; economic and military assistance programs; communist strategy, policies, and threats; the Soviet space program; chemical warfare; foreign economies; conflicts; military and defense capabilities; weapons and advanced weapons programs; political prospects and problems; terrorism, radicalism, subversion, and insurgency; and general reports on geographic regions throughout the world.

Material is arranged by the numerical-subject index applied to the documents at the time of origin. Folders contain one or several estimates.

- Date range: 1961-1969
- 3 linear feet, 9 linear inches
- Available for research (Open)

Digitization note: Some of these folders have been scanned and are available on DiscoverLBJ.org. See folder title list to identify scanned folders.
