Notes concerning the Vice President's Activity

At about 7:30 tonight, the Convair piloted by Harold Teague, was radioing in and due to arrive at LBJ Ranch. There was bad weather and the plane did not land. Mr. Johnson stayed up all night attempting to locate the plane. A. W. Moursund organized a group of men on horseback to scour the neighborhood. Fairly early in the evening -- perhaps 9 or 10 -- Mr. Johnson seemed to have realized ~~that~~ the tragedy which was confirmed the next morning.
