tes concerning the Vice President's Activity

Statement issued by Vice President on deaths of Bob Clark and Walter Prescott Webb: "I have lost two good friends in a 24-hour period -- Dr. Walter Prescott Webb and Robert L. Clark. They were quite different but both of them were close to me. It is a sad day. Bob Clark was a member of an outstanding Texas family, a man of men and a gentleman in every sense of the word. He gave unstintingly of himself and his talents to his community and they claimed him as friend in all walks of life. Dr. Webb was the great chronicler of the Southwest and West. He was a man of original thought and one of the most distinguished sons of Texas. He was a man of profundity, leavened with a
