For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Powell, Benjamin H. (Benjamin Harrison), 1881-1960

Biographical sketch:

Benjamin Harrison Powell, Sr. was an attorney and friend of Lyndon B. Johnson. He had a private law practice in Texas, and also served as a judge for the 12th Judicial District and the Commission of Appeals, a branch of the Texas Supreme Court

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of materials collected by Benjamin H. Powell during his time as an attorney and legal advisor with the law firm Powell, Wirtz, Rauhut, and Gideon. The material contained in this series includes reports, contracts, directories, notes, legal papers, journals, pamphlets, clippings, books, receipts, and deposit slips. Some of the subjects covered in the material include the American Bar Association, the Salvation Army, the Boy Scouts of America, the National Youth Administration (NYA), Powell's personal finances, legal material, court cases, real estate, property, business matters, income taxes, uniform state laws, judicial hearings, deeds of trust, oil leases, insurance policies, Pearl Harbor Attack hearings before a Joint House and Senate Committee, the Texas Law Review, law journals, and other published materials. There is also correspondence with a variety of individuals including Lyndon Baines Johnson, Lady Bird Johnson, W. Lee O'Daniel, Tom Connally, A.J. Wirtz, Charles Evans Hughes, Oveta Culp Hobby, and W.P. Hobby.
