

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S NOTES ON CONVERSATION WITH RAY BLISS

AUGUST 23, 1967

12104a

President Johnson invited Ray Bliss to go to Viet Nam with the election-watching group -- said he had invited John Bailey and Bailey had said he would drop everything and go but the President said he did not want to send the Democratic Chairman unless the Republican Chairman could go also. Bliss said that he did not know whether or not he could go but would check and call back.
