From Gov. Buford Ellington,
Memphis, Tennessee
To President Johnson

B - Look what happened to me. I just wanted to call you and tell you I have been in touch with Ramsey.

A - I have been talking with him. He told me.

B - I am letting him know everything we are doing. I am afraid we are in for a very bad situation. We will move in as much National Guard as possible.

A - Definitely.

B - If it is all right with you, I will just keep in touch with Ramsey.

A - That is all right. Just call me if there is anything in the world I can do.

B - My thinking is that we must put as much protective strength in there as we can. It will be real rough. I will keep in touch with Ramsey.

A - My love to you.

B - Thank you, my friend.
