THE PRESIDENT (A)
from Edwin Weisl, Jr (B)
1:05p June 25, 1968

B Either one of the three could be confirmed in his opinion. He thought the best chance of confirmation with the least amount of trouble would be Thornberry because he has a lot of friends on the Hill and they like him and respect him. Next to this would be Vance. He thinks Fowler could be confirmed, but personally did not seem as enthusiastic about that. But he said either one of them could be confirmed in his opinion, and that he would be willing to help do that.

A Thank you, my friend. I'll be back in touch with you.

B I'll be here tomorrow for that luncheon.

A That's good. I'm just sitting here with Averell Harriman, and we're talking about Paris. Goodbye.
