

August 11, 2008

ARCHIVES PROCESSING NOTE

The President's Daily Diary pages for February 16, 1964, were missing when the Diary was transferred to the LBJ Library from the White House.

According to the "Appointment Log" maintained by Kenneth O'Donnell, the President spent the day at the White House, leaving at 5:25 p.m. with Mrs. Johnson and Lynda to attend St. John's Church. After services there, he returned to the White House. During the day he made telephone calls to George Meany, Secretary Willard Wirtz, and Senator Allen Ellender.