				The ride to New York was Mr. J. B. Pickle's first airplane ride. "Nowhere in the United States could an ordinary clodhopper -- I'm just a retired farmer and groceryman -- be invited to ride in the President's plane," Mr. Pickle told reporters. He said he was willing to make the flight flight because, "I've lived to 88 years and I don't have much longer to live." -(Washington Daily News, April 21, 1964)
