				Motorcade to Pageant Hotel (3 miles from Bader). Streets heavily lined with enthusiastic people. Governor Hughes, Senators Humphrey and Dodd accompanied the President.
	9:45p			Arrived Pageant Pageant Hotel. Screaming, cheering mobs greeted the President who obviously responded in enthusiasm. To Room 114 (Moyers' suite). With Governor Hughes and Sen. Dodd, watched convention proceedings on TV. Bill Moyers, Wilson McCarthy, and J Valenti in and out. During this time, Senator Humphrey worked in the outer room. He rewrote his speech, working with Dick Goodwin and two of his own aides, Bill Connell, his AA, and Mr. Spencer Robert Jensen , his Press Secretary. Also in the outer room were SS Youngblood and Behn, Horace Busby, George Reedy, Jack Valenti, Bill Moyers, Wilson McCarthy, Cecil Stoughton, Ann McCamley, and Juanita Roberts.
	9:53	f		Walter Jenkins - in WJ's convention hall office
	10:10p			Mrs. Hubert (Muriel) Humphrey arrived in the outer room -- agitated by having waited in the basement of convention hall with her children and thinking they were abandoned. Lively discussion between her, the Senator, Bill Connell, Wilson McCarthy and others. Clarification of plans resulted in Mrs. Humphrey being taken back (10:20pm) to Convention Hall, and with her children, taken to join Mrs. Johnson in the Presidential box. Senator Humphrey complained of noise and confusion and moved to Bill Moyer's bedroom to continue working on his speech.
	10:55			To Convention Hall, by car -- accompanied by Senators Humphrey and Dodd, and Gov. Hughes -- to Walter Jenkins' office. Crowds still big and extremely enthusiastic. Met by Mrs. Johnson, Lynda, and Lucy. From WJ's office into wings behind podium, greeting staff and dignitaries while waiting to be introduced.
