	12:58			In mjdr's room, the President pointed to the headline on the Evening Star, "Secrecy Shrouds Tonkin incident" and said, "Now, Bob, that's what I want to get rid of." The Then he mentioned the headline which noted that the Secretary's daughter and her date had been robbed while parked in a car in front of the Secretary's house. The Secretary briefly told the story, and the President chuckled and said, "That's what they ought to get for parking under a street lamp." The group laughed. And the President said, "Bob instructs his daughter to park under a light, and she gets robbed."	Re latest incident in Gulf of Tonkin Vietnam
