	6:20				To mjdr's office -- briefly scanned newspapers. Greeted Ambassador and Mrs. Angier Biddle Duke and was later joined by JV and Luci. The President watched the news on TV and chatted with Amb. & Mrs. Duke about an announcement he had heard would be made on the news about his grandfather being a deserter during the Civil War. The President remarked, "The last time I saw my grandfather I was six years old and he was still fighting". Asked mjdr "Are you going to this reception -- would you like to go with me -- I'm not going to stay very long."
C	6:30				Departed White House for Shoreham Hotel where reception was given in honor of President and Mrs. Johnson by President & Mrs. Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines w/Amb. & Mrs. Duke, General C. V. Clifton, MJDR, Luci and Rufus Youngblood.
	* Pres. arrived				Upon arrival at the Shoreham Hotel, the President waved to the crowd outside and Calvert St. entrance of				was then met by President & Mrs. Macapagal and their daughter, Gloria, and escorted to the reception room by them.* They immediately formed a receiving line and one of

	by Pres. Macapagal,				After the receiving line had broken up, the President circled the entire room, mingling
	Amb. Ledesma and				and shaking hands with guests. As he left the reception, the President told President
	Mr. Phillip C. Hollywood,				Macapagal it had been a wonderful party and urged him not to leave but President
	Hotel Mgr. and escorted				Macapagal, his wife and daughter walked with the President to his car. As the President's to Regency Room.				car pulled away from the hotel, a motor policeman sped ahead to clear the traffic but the President directed the driver to make a "U" turn in order to drop Hazel Markel off at her apartment. Because of this, the President's car was separated from the motorcade and the President returned to the White House via a circuitous route.
					On arrival at Hazel Markel's apartment, the President shook hands with the doorman and asked him if he knew anyone who was voting for Goldwater. The doorman replied that he did and the President suggested that he talk to them and try to change their minds. Enroute to the White House, the President called Bill Moyers and asked,
					"What did they say about my grandfather?" During a conversation with Amb. Duke, he asked him if he knew anyone who would make a better chief of protocol than Lloyd Hand. The Ambassador replied that he could not think of a better person and thought that would be splendid. Mrs. Duke agreed with him.

					H. R. 6593, An Act for the relief of Earnest O. Scott.
					H. R. 10204, An Act to extend the Osage mineral reservation for an indefinite period.
					H. R. 12289, An Act to establish the Lewis and Clark Trail Commission, and for other purposes.
					The President today proclaimed Oct. 15 of each year as WHITE CANE SAFETY DAY. A white cane in our society has become one of the symbols of a blind person's ability to come and go on his own. Its use has promoted courtesy and special consideration for the blind on our streets and highways. The President urged civic and service organizations, schools, public bodies, and the media of public information to join in this observance with appropriate activities designed to promote continuing awareness of the significance of the white cane to blind persons.
					Communique issued between President Lyndon B. Johnson and H. E. Diosdado P. Macapagal, President of the Philippines, following talks in Washington, D. C., October 5 and 6, 1964.
					Statement issued today by President Lyndon B. Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the Foreign Minister of Japan, inaugurating the transmission of television communication between the United States and Japan through Satellite Syncom III .
