During lunch the President was restrained. He discussed his press conference, and when asked if he thought it was a good one he replied that he thought it probably wasn't, that he probably talked too much, and probably

THE WHITE HOUSE became too philosophical. He was pleased that he had kept the Honolulu Date February 4, 1966

PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON trip quiet until he was ready to announce it, and said that this was one that he had done all by
