	In	Out	Lo	LD
	4:45 pm				Departed Los Pinos via the Mexican's Lincoln convertible... enroute to "Cantinflas's" Home.
					Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Diaz Ordaz, and Luci rode in another car following.
	5:03 pm				Arrived at the home of Cantinflas - 2402 Paseo de la Reforma, Mexico City. The neighborhood is lovely, and Cantinflas' home is next door to the residence of the US Ambassador.
					The President, Mrs. Johnson, Luci, President and Mrs. Diaz Ordaz and Cantinflas all went into his home ----and were joined at the President's request by Mf and Vm (JV also in the home)
					The purpose of the visit was for Cantinflas 6 year old son to give Mrs. Johnson a gift and to tell her what he had been practicing for sometime before Mrs. Johnson would arrive in Mexico City. He gave her a gold Aztec medal -- w/ her name inscribed on the reverse side of it -- and his name along w/ it --and the date of the visit... He gave it to her in thanks and gratitude for what she and the President had done in trying to save his mother's life.
					(Several months ago, when the President and Mrs. Johnson were at the LBJ Ranch, the President had sent down his JetStar to pick up Senator Paul Douglas. When they were flying out from Mexico City, they received word from the tower, that Cantinflas and his dying wife were leaving Mexico City in his plane, and had gotten engine trouble. The plane turned back and picked up Cantinflas and his wife and brought them to the LBJ Ranch -- where they were then transferred to the President's private plane at the ranch and flown to Temple, Texas -- in an effort to save her life. For this Cantinflas and his son were extremely grateful and his son wanted to give a small token of his appreciation to Mrs. Johnson.)
	5:20				Departed Cantinflas home -- w/ President Diaz Ordaz in the car w/ the President. The interpreter had been lost -- and a ss agent from Los Angeles - SAIC Leyva was placed in the car to act as interpreter for President Johnson and President Diaz Ordaz

					Motorcade to the airport for farewell ceremonies.
					Crowds turned out again -- not as tumultuous as when the President arrived in Mexico on the 14 of April -- but still a good number of flag-waving and cheering Mexicans
	5:35				The motorcade stopped and the President and Diaz Ordaz stood in the car to wave at the masses.
	5:43				Arrived at Mexico City International Airport ----the President walked over to a group of people -- mainly young girls dressed in red blouses and white skirts cheering and waving -- and shook hands w/ several of them... then walked with his arm around Diaz Ordaz -- to wave at the crowds all about.
					The two presidents walked to the receiving line -- and shook hands w/ the dignitaries then to the JetStar ----that was waiting to take the President back to the United States --
					A 21-gun salute -- took place as the President and Diaz Ordaz were waving to the people
	6:00 pm				Departed via Jet Star to LBJ Ranch w/ JV, MMV, JJ, MF and VM, and Luc Johnson

					Fried fish, black-eyed peas, greens, pineapple upside down cake.
					The President talked of his trip to Mexico -- comparing President Lopez Mateos and his visit w/ him when he was Majority Leader -- and his visit now with Diaz Ordaz. He said that when ^{he} talked w/ Lopez Mateos -- they had a 5 point program -- that many of those things have now been accomplished. Some of the points were the Chamizal Treaty problem, the Amistad Dam, Fulbright Scholars, the Screwworm
	8:54			t	J. Edgar Hoover - Washington, D. C. --- JV had given the President reports on how well the SS and FBI had coordinated with the Mexican counterparts... and the President was so pleased and grateful that he wanted to call Mr. Hoover and tell him thank-you for all of the help in sending down extra border police, etc.. also told him to tell his men and the agents what a good job "their President" thought they did.
	8:57			t	Jim Rowley - Washington, D. C. --- re same as above -- told him how grateful he was for his SS agents -- and what a wonderful job they did in Mexico City.
