	11:14 am				The President walked to the waiting helicopter on the South Grounds and boarded the chopper w/ JV and MW
C	11:15a				Departed the South Grounds enroute to Andrews AFB in the helicopter w/ Senator Scott Lucas MW, JJ, JV, VM, B. Fleming
	11:20				Arrived Andrews AFB -- and boarded AF-1, 26,000 for flight to Detroit, Michigan
	11:28 am				Airborne from Andrews to Detroit for funeral of Senator Pat McNamara In the stateroom w/ the President were: Senator Alan Bible Senator Edmund Muskie Senator Eugene McCarthy Senator Daniel Inouye Senator John Pastore Senator Wayne Morse Senator Howard Cannon Senator Scott Lucas Senator Gale McGee Senator Joseph Tydings Senator Ralph Yarborough Senator and Mrs. Phil Hart Senator Jennings Randolph
					While visiting in the stateroom w/ the Senators -- the President told 2 stories -- one about the Courtenay Valenti episode -- where Courtenay in front of some Vietnam veterans -- told them in answer to a query from the President that "she loved Pat" -- instead of her customary answer -- "I love the Prez!". Pat Nugent was standing nearby -- and she said that she loved Pat instead of the President. The President answered the press stories back -- by saying that Courtenay was "misquoted" and that she really had said that she loved the "Prez"... everyone enjoyed the story immensely.
					He then told the story that his cook, Mrs. Zephyr Wright who had been with him for years, and who has tried to keep his weight down -- left a note under his plate last night when he sat down to dinner. The President then pulled the handwritten note from his pocket and read the entire note to all the Senators... it told the President that she was trying to keep him on a diet -- but if he didn't eat was put in front of him -- and ate more than he was supposed to that her task was impossible. "Eat what I put in front of you -- and don't complain about it." The President enjoyed telling the Senators the story as much as they enjoyed hearing it.

					Then worked on the plane w/ VM -- all of the signing material from his desk... in the Oval Office.
	11:45	11:48			Talked w/ Senator Wayne Morse
					Then spoke to Lem Johns and Marvin Watson re: the schedule in Detroit, Michigan
					Talked w/ Senator Phil Hart on who should ride in the President's car in the motorcade -- according to seniority, etc...
	12:15 pm				The President talked from the microphone welcomed the guests aboard... ...telling them the arrival time in Detroit and when they would return to Washington. He commented on the sad occasion that brought them together.. and said that they were all friends who had come together to honor their departed friend - Senator McNamara --
					Told the Senators and Congressmen where they would ride upon arrival in Detroit -- mentioned which ones would ride in the car w/ him and told the others that there would transportation provided for them in the form of buses.
	11:30 pm CST				Arrived DETROIT, MICHIGAN AIRPORT. - Selfridge Air Field The President and guests deplaned... and went to the waiting vehicles for the drive to the Church in Detroit -- some 25 miles from the airport.

(1)	12:05p	CST			Arrived at the Holy Name of Jesus Church (Catholic Church), and with a somber expression on his face -- got out of the car - posed for a moment with those accompanying him, then walked into the Church.
C					Attended funeral services of Senator Pat McNamara ( Senator Patrick V. McNamara ) Rev. Christopher Lahey offered Mass.
					Crowds were gathered outside of the church - both adjacent to the church and across the street -- some in respectful silence for the Senator and others to see the President and his party.
	1:05p				The President emerged from the Church and returned to his waiting car w/ the same party.
	1:12p				Departed the Church enroute to the Burial services at the cemetery a short distance from the Church. The Procession halted halfway to the cemetery -- the President's car was in the lead, and he asked that the motorcade stop until the cars carrying the family and friends of the Senator could catch up and lead the procession.
	1:20p				Mt. Olivet Arrived at the Cemetery and attended the Burial Services for Senator McNamara. (Throughout the Cemetery, hundreds of people were gathered -- sightseers who had come irreverently - to see the President. They were standing atop the gravestones and pushing and shoving people to get a better view of the President. Police control was evident, but the crowds still merged forward.)
	1:35p				The services ended and the President stopped for a moment to say goodbye and offer a few words of condolence to them... then proceeded to his car.
	1:40p				Departed the cemetery w/ the motorcade of cars and buses following
