12:00n					The President, accompanied by Chet Carter of Protocol Office, departed his office--reading briefing papers as he walked--and walked along the circular drive to the Diplomatic Reception Room, South Portico entrance. As he reached the entrance, a Lincoln limousine carrying the President of Israel pulled into the drive and stopped at the South Portico.
Unofficial/visit to the United States of H. E. Zalman Shazar, President of Israel and Mrs. Shazar - hence no arrival ceremony.
	12:07p				The President walked with President Shazar of Israel to the Flower Garden where he and the President sat side by side on two chairs in the sunning area. Photographers were allowed to photograph this part of the meeting. After the photographers finished their duties, the two Presidents continued to meet in the sunning area. When all photographers were gone from the area, the two Presidents moved to two chaise lounges and talked in this relaxed position with their advisors gathered around them in chairs.
	12:46p				The President and President Shazar walked across the Flower Garden in the direction of his office. The two Presidents stopped at the Flower Garden steps as the President emphasized a point. The President then turned
