He then invited guests upstairs to join him for movies: " -- the Gerry Nugent interview (Mrs. Nugent declined the invitation to watch for she couldn't get up the stairs with her bad foot) -- Mrs. Johnson's Big Bend Trip, and a Day in April. The President was relaxing and enjoying the trip. He carefully pointed out various points of interest to his guests, especially enjoying the sight of the Capitol Domesilhouetted against a hazy night sky. The President kidded Vicky and Simon about about their coming wedding, telling them that he thought if he were in their place he'd just run away. He talked to Lynda about her plans plans for this week -- a trip to New York-- and said, "Well, I guess everybody is going off and leaving me."
