	8:12p		f		Mrs. Pat Nugent, Austin residence
J	8:32p	9:30p	t		Governor John Connally, Austin (returning the Governor's earlier call)
					Talked about how he disliked Evans' and Novak's reports--"they are liars".
					Said he would like to see Morrison elected. Asked Gov. Connally's ideas on possible candidates for Attorney General. It needs to be someone who will be a tie with the Negroes. Talked about Ramsey Clark and the problems if he were to be appointed with his father on the Supreme Court. Also mentioned Dick Hughes, the governor he likes best next to Connally. Told the Governor he had seen some real good pictures from his birthday which he was sending to Nellie. Ended up by saying to think of possibilities for Attny-Gen. and call him back tomorrow or the next day.
