1	7:00a				The President awakened and gotup and shaved immediately. He then had breakfast	1
1					of chipped beef, melon balls, and tea. (The President was alone in his room this
I					morning, Mrs. Johnson did not join him)
					At about 8:00a, Jake Jacobsen came to the President's suite. He did not go into
1					thePresident's room because the President was asleep he was reading the papers,
1					and had fallen asleep. Paul Glynn and Jake Jacobsen let him sleep until about 8:25a
1					Then Paul waked the President, and the President asked for Jake and Marvin. They wen	+
+					into his room. Marvin Watson showed the President some Lady Hamilton watches, cigar
4					case with seal (small and large), and then went over a little bit of the President's	3
+					schedule for today with him. The President told Marvin Watson he would have Bill Mo	vers
+					in tonight with the foreign correspondents in his suite at about 7:00p for drinks	1-
+					and a briefing. And, Mrs. Johnson had agreed to meet with the Thai group in the sui and he might drop by to see them also. The President seems rather tireda peaceful
