					he didn't know what it was all about, so he was staying in his room working on a proposed draft for a proposed taping tonight report to the folks back home on Manila and Xink visit. The President told him that "Of Course, you didn't know what it was all aboutneither did Secretary Rusk, but he was where he was supposed to be at the right time. Next time you get a call from Marvin or Jake with instructions, you do what they say." McPherson was upset for he hadn't wanted to miss the trip to VietNam anyxmexexthanxthexExestdentx.
					The President again reminded him to leave word where he would be with the White House operators.
