					The President was very impressed w/ the Senator's appearance and answers and wanted to tell him so.
					Following "Face the Nation," the President and party watched "Meet the Press" -- Sargent Shriver was the guest.
C	1:10p			t	Senator Edward Brooke - at WTOP-TV studios, Washington The President told the Senator that he was sitting in his living room watching the television w/ Cong. Mahon, that he was proud of what the Senator had done for his country, and that he wanted to see him very soon. He told the Senator to call MW for an appointment. The President also put Cong. Mahon on the line -- and the Congressman also congratulated the Senator on his TV appearance
C	1:40p			t	Sargent Shriver - to congratulate him on his appearance on "Meet the Press"
✓	2:00p				LUNCH w/ Mrs. Johnson, Lynda Cong and Mrs. George Mahon Mr. and Mrs. William S. White Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Riordan Mr. and Mrs. Simon McHugh Mary S. mf The President still had Sen. Brooke's appearance on "Face the Nation" on his mind, and talked at length w/ Mr. White about how the Senator had changed his position and thinking. Before going to VietNam, the ██████████ Senator had been anti-administration policy, but his going to VietNam had "opened his eyes," and he had been ██████████ honest about things he had seen and heard The President and Mr. White kidded about a "draft Fulbright for VietNam," thinking that his going there might change his thinking as Brooke's thinking had been changed
