					(fm Bob Fleming) Mike O'Neill of NY Daily News saw the President this afternoon for about half an hour. He told the President that the New York newspaper situation remained hazardous, since new contracts would hurt all the papers, especially the World-Tribune.
					He asked about education problems; the President said history was repeating itself, and that Great Society gains would have to be defended against Republicans. The President asked about public reaction to medical aid; O'Neill said reaction was good among those who understood it. O'Neill asked about expanded Vietnam bombing. The President said targets were chosen as necessary, that as we moved down the list, the
