	In	Out	Lo	LD
	1:05p		t		Jim Jones (on business service)--The President had just heard Bob Pierpoint on the one o'clock news say that Rev. Aken of the Church of Christ. The President told JRJ to find out where the misinformation came from and to get it corrected, for Mr. Aken is from the First Christian Church. The President also told JRJ to listen to the news hourly.
	1:06p		t		Col. Cross (business service)--We will leave from San Antonio, sending some ahead by chopper and then going in later by jetstar. We will eat on the plane. What time did Col. Cross suggest (due to storms between Washington and the Ranch)--Col. Cross said 9:30pm.
	1:09p		f		Jim Jones (business service)--George Christian said the press received word that Aken was of the First Christian Church, and that apparently they did not know the difference. GC said he was correcting the story.
✓	1:10p		t		Dale Meeks (business service)--The President asked D Meeks his location. The President told him to take down about 25 feet of fence so that the deer can jump over into the other pasture and keep the Barbados out at the same time. (in the SW corner of the Hartman)--the President said to do this this afternoon, and he will check later in the day to see if any of the deer have jumped the fence into the green pasture.
✓	1:22p		t		Dale Meeks (business service) --Get fence bills together and send statements to Judge Mr. Moursund Moursund and to Mildred Stegall--tell them the agreements you have made with the neighbors.
✓	1:30	1:33p			The President stopped briefly to say hello to two of the Sultemejer boys who were working with the sheep. The elder said he was going on to college; the 18-year-old, Calvin said he was joining the Air Force in June.
