	9:30pm				President to the Mansion accompanied by for DINNER Senator Richard Russell Tom Johnson
	9:31pm				Met by Luci and Lyn on Second Floor and went immediately to dinner table. Luci had had dinner at the Mayflower, but Lyn ate considerably as he was fed from one side by his mother and the other side from his grandfather's plate
	9:35pm				Joined by mr for dinner
					Conversation at table was mostly reminiscing by President, Senator Russell, Luci about when Luci and Lynda were small and Sen. Russell was frequent dinner guest at 4921 30th Place Pres. (then Senator and Democratic Leader) would want to talk business and Sen. Russell would want to play with the children.
					Pres. asked mr to tell Senator Russell all she knew about Judge Homer Thornberry -- his childhood and early days in college and thereafter before coming to Congress.
					Balance of conversation was with regard to Lyn who responded with soome Da Das, a few'noes'', many smiles, and patty-caking.
					Immediately upon leaving dinner table Pres. followed Sen. Russell downstairs to the Diplomatic Entrance and talked to him for a few more minutes -- 5 to 10 - before the Senator departed in his own car. Luci, Lyn, Tom Johnson and mr also also there.
					Lyn by that time was carrying a kitchen spoon with a handle about 18 inches long.
