C	3:30p	5:44p			Marianne Means Riordan
	5:03p		f		DeVier Pierson returning the President's call of about 3:30p today.
C	5:50 p		f		Garnett "Jack" Horner - Star
	5:55p				To mjdr's room to discuss UPI ticker re Sen. Gordon Allott's claim Justice Fortas drafted proposed legislation extending SService protection to include Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates (passed day after assassination of Sen. Kennedy) and report from his diary on contacts with Justic Fortas and Sen. Allott worked up from his diary. Told mjdr to call the Justice and see if he had any memory of any discussions on the subject as the diary revealed no clues of any discussions between the President and the Justice on that legislation.
	6:04p				To the mansion and lunch table
	6:05p		t		DeVier Pierson - see 5:55 p.m. above. The diary showed Mr. Pierson had spent 50 minutes with the President on June 5, 1968 discussing the legislation pending on extending Secret Service responsibilities etc.
					mjdr talked to Justice Fortas (who was in Connecticut) - read him the ticker and reviewed the telephone and personal visit contacts with the President for that period of time. The Justice said "it is all nonsense" and he has no memory of discussing the subject.
