THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

28 November 1963

Dear Mac: 11/28

I had intended to discuss this with President Johnson but ran out of time. I am sure we will get some wild statements out of Havana if Castro's speech last night is any indicator and, for this reason, feel the President should be advised on the generalities of the Oswald-Mexico City development. I assume the FBI are keeping the Attorney General informed.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director
