Series 2 - Chronological and Case Files, 1928 – 1960

This series pertains to Edward M. Cape's career as an attorney and includes case files, correspondence, personal letters, memorandums, lists and notes, evidentiary material, reports, contracts, and legal filings and briefs. Many of the legal case files deal with farm, ranching, and seed cases; life insurance disputes; bankruptcy, wage garnishment, and tax cases; family and estate cases including wills, adoptions, and divorces; disputes with local and state municipalities especially San Marcos, Texas, Kyle, Texas, Hays county, and the state of Texas; and oil, gas, and pipeline cases. Correspondence with Cape exchanges with Lyndon B. Johnson, Wright Morrow, Beauford H. Jester, Homer Thornberry, W. Lee O'Daniel, and Allan Shivers; and companies that include Brown and Root, Texas Power and Light, the Texas Loan Company, and the Lower Colorado River Authority.

Series 3 - Empire Public Service Corporation, 1929 – 1944

This series pertains to Edward M. Cape's association with the Empire Public Service Corporation. He represented Empire in Texas in order to help them acquire properties and small electric cooperatives for the large power and light utilities company. This series includes correspondence, letters, memorandums, reports, contracts, legal filings and briefs, proposals, evidentiary material, and lists and notes. There is some correspondence between Cape and Lyndon B. Johnson.

Series 4 - Legal and Campaign Files, 1900 – 1960

This series includes correspondence, letters, memorandums, reports, scrapbooks, maps, plats, deeds and titles, photographs, legal briefs and filings, clippings, wills, evidentiary material, affidavits, contracts, and lectures. Much of this material pertains to legal matters, but a small amount pertains to Lyndon B. Johnson's campaigns between 1941 and 1957.
