UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Federal Bureau of Investigation

October 22, 1964

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover today reported to President Johnson and Acting Attorney General Nicholas deB. Katzenbach that the FBI's extensive investigation of Walter W. Jenkins, former Assistant to the President, disclosed no information that Mr. Jenkins has compromised the security or interests of the United States in any manner.

At 9:05 p. m. , October 14, 1964, upon learning that Mr. Jenkins had been arrested on a morals charge, President Johnson directed the FBI to institute a full and complete investigation.

The investigation launched that evening covered the full scope of Mr. Jenkins' life from his early years in Texas to the present time. More than 500 persons -- including current and former neighbors, business associates, social acquaintances and school classmates -- were interviewed. Medical, financial, military, and police records were reviewed. Every logical available source was contacted to determine whether Mr. Jenkins had engaged in indecent acts on other occasions; whether the national security had been compromised; and why, following a morals arrest of Mr. Jenkins in 1959, the then Senate Majority Leader Johnson had not been notified.

According to Mr. Hoover, the FBI investigation showed that Mr. Jenkins, who was one of several top White House aides, left his desk about 7 p. m. on October 7, 1964, to attend a party at the new offices of "Newsweek" magazine. His wife joined him at this party. At approximately 8 p. m. , he and Mrs. Jenkins left the affair -- she to go to a dinner party; and he, to return to his office. It was Mr. Jenkins' custom to work far into the night, as well as on week ends, the FBI learned.

At 8:35 p. m. , Mr. Jenkins was arrested in the basement men's room of the YMCA Building, 1736 G Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. , by officers of the Metropolitan Police Department. Arrested at the same time for engaging in an indecent act with Mr. Jenkins was Andy Choka, a 60-year-old retired Army enlisted man.

Mr. Jenkins made no attempt to hide his identity from the officers, willingly accompanied them and admitted having been arrested one previous time on a morals charge.

The previous arrest occurred shortly before 10:30 p. m. , January 15, 1959, in the same basement men's room of the YMCA. He was charged with loitering for indecent purposes.

In January, 1959, the arrest resulted in a record entry submitted to the FBI charging Mr. Jenkins with Investigation (Suspicious Person). He was released after posting and forfeiting $25 collateral.

Information was received that the word "pervert" had been added to the police record book at a subsequent time but never submitted to the FBI. Investigation revealed that the word "pervert" was, in fact, later added to this record book by a police officer; and examination of the book indicated that such additions were not uncommon.

On the night of October 7, 1964, he and Choka were charged with "Disorderly Conduct (indecent gestures)." Each was released after posting $50 collateral.

The FBI investigation disclosed that neither Mr. Jenkins nor Choka knew the identity of the other, nor had either gone to the basement men's room of the YMCA by prearrangement, at the time of their encounter on October 7th. Choka has a record of previous morals offenses dating back to 1948.

Mr. Jenkins was interviewed by the FBI on October 18, 1964, and admitted having engaged in the indecent acts for which he was arrested in 1959 and 1964. He claimed that he had been "enticed" by the arresting officer on the former occasion and that his mind was befuddled by fatigue, alcohol, physical illness and lack of food the latter time.

Mr. Jenkins further advised that he did not recall any further indecent acts, and if he had been involved in any such acts he would have been under the influence of alcohol and in a state of fatigue and would not remember them. It was his belief that these two experiences had occurred after extreme fatigue and imbibing in alcohol; and extensive interviews of Mr. Jenkins' co-workers and doctors at the White House revealed that he was suffering from gross fatigue and overwork.

Mr. Jenkins stated that no attempt had ever been made to compromise or blackmail him. He also told the FBI that he would lay down his life before he would disclose any information that would damage the best interests of the United States.

A favorable appraisal of Mr. Jenkins' loyalty and dedication to the United States was given the FBI by more than 300 of his associates, both business and social, representing divergent political backgrounds, who were interviewed in this investigation. The investigation did not indicate that any classified data had been compromised.

Mr. Jenkins, who entered Government service in 1940, was first investigated by the FBI in 1957. The investigation was conducted at the request of the Atomic Energy Commission in connection with a clearance to be granted Mr. Jenkins by that Commission as Administrative Assistant assigned to the Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee of the United States Senate.

Without exception, all persons interviewed at that time commented highly regarding Mr. Jenkins. The investigation disclosed that he had seen action in the United States Army during World War II -- entering the Service in 1941 as a Private and was honorably released from active duty as a Captain in December, 1945, when he was transferred to the Army Reserve.

In May, 1950, Mr. Jenkins was transferred to the Air Force Reserve as a Major. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel in 1958 and has been attached to the 9999th Air Reserve Squadron at Andrews Air Force Base in Washington. His available ratings disclosed while an enlisted man he was rated "excellent" and while an officer during the period from 1955 to 1961 he was rated either a "very fine officer" or a "very outstanding officer."

As a member of this Air Reserve Squadron, Mr. Jenkins received a number of briefings of a classified nature.

Mr. Jenkins has received the following clearances:

1. Air Force Top Secret Clearance, April 5, 1956.
2. Department of Defense Top Secret Clearance, December 23, 1957.
3. Atomic Energy Commission Q Clearance, February 20, 1958, -- following the full field FBI investigation of him requested by the Commission in 1957.

According to Mr. Hoover, on January 16, 1959, the FBI received a fingerprint card from the Washington Metropolitan Police Department reflecting that "Walter Wilson Jenkins," who was "Unable to Give" his occupation, was arrested for "Inv. Sup. Person" (Investigation Suspicious Person). No mention of a sex or morals offense appears on this card; nor did it show any indication of Government employment.

On Friday, April 7, 1961, the Secret Service, which had been requested to issue Mr. Jenkins a White House pass, submitted his fingerprints to the FBI. The following Monday, the FBI sent to the Secret Service Mr. Jenkins' identification record showing the January, 1959, charge against him as shown on the fingerprint card submitted by the Washington Metropolitan Police Department.

Additionally, in April, 1961, in response to a name check request from the Secret Service, the FBI sent that agency copies of its investigative reports from the investigation of Mr. Jenkins which had been launched for the Atomic Energy Commission in 1957. After the President learned on October 14th of the arrest of Mr. Jenkins on October 7, 1964, he ordered the Honorable Douglas Dillon, Secretary of the Treasury, to make a complete investigation of the Secret Service's handling of the information it received in 1961 from the FBI.

On October 16, 1964, Mr. Dillon wrote Acting Attorney General Katzenbach, advising that the FBI identification record which reflected Mr. Jenkins' 1959 arrest for "Inv. Sup. Person" "was not checked further" by the Secret Service "with the District of Columbia authorities nor were any higher officers of the Secret Service or anyone else informed of the report. Specifically it was not brought to the attention of any member of the White House staff, the then Vice President, or any member of his staff."

Because the police record routinely transmitted to the FBI did not refer to the arrest in terms other than Investigation Suspicious Person and because the Secret Service did not notify the White House or the Vice President of the arrest, neither President Kennedy, the White House staff nor Mr. Johnson had any knowledge of the 1959 incident nor any reason to suspect its existence.

When he assumed office as President in November, 1963, Mr. Johnson still did not know of the January, 1959, arrest. When questioned regarding his failure to order an investigation of himself, Mr. Jenkins stated that he thought he had been investigated in 1961.

According to Mr. Hoover, the investigation which the FBI launched last week has disclosed that Mr. Jenkins has had limited association with some individuals who are alleged to be, or who admittedly are, sex deviates. Mr. Hoover stated there was no information reported to indicate that Mr. Jenkins has ever engaged in improper acts with them.

Mr. Hoover stated that many of the persons interviewed observed that the January, 1959, and October, 1964, incidents occurred during periods of extremely intense emotional strain and physical exhaustion in Mr. Jenkins' life.

On October 21, 1964, the Chairman of the Department of Psychiatry in the School of Medicine at The George Washington University advised the FBI -- with Mr. Jenkins' authorization -- that he had first examined Mr. Jenkins on "October 15, 1964, and found him to be suffering from a severe depressive state. This has necessitated continuing hospitalization with constant nursing attendance. Further examination of Mr. Jenkins leads to the conclusion that his general adjustment is within the normal range and that his present condition was the culmination of extreme tensions."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Mr. Deke De Loach has shown me the memorandum of January 15 to the President reporting a rumor that I put up bond for Mr. Walter W. Jenkins in the amount of $25 when Mr. Jenkins was arrested by the Metropolitan Police Department on January 15, 1959.

As I informed Mr. De Loach, this is a rumor and totally unfounded in fact.

- (1) I was attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, at the time.
- (2) I was not in Washington on any date between 1954 and January, 1960.
- (3) Until news reports on October 14, 1964, I did not know of or suspect that Mr. Jenkins had ever been arrested for any reason.
- (4) I have never posted bond for Mr. Jenkins or, for that matter, anyone else.

I informed Mr. De Loach that I would like these facts placed in the file with the memorandum concerning the rumor, and he agreed to do so.

Thank you for calling this completely erroneous rumor to our attention.

Sincerely,

Bill Moyers
Special Assistant to the President

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

Reference is made to my previous communications which have furnished the White House information concerning Mr. Walter Wilson Jenkins.

On January 7, 1965, an individual who requested anonymity advised a Special Agent of this Bureau that he had heard a rumor that a sergeant of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., knew that Mr. Bill D. Moyers put up bond for Mr. Jenkins in the amount of $25 when Mr. Jenkins was arrested by the Metropolitan Police Department on January 15, 1959. He did not name the sergeant involved, but advised he had worked a particular shift on December 18, 1964.

Without making any open inquiry into the matter, it has been discreetly determined that copies of collateral receipts maintained by the Metropolitan Police Department have been destroyed and there is no way to determine by documentary evidence who, if anyone other than Mr. Jenkins, posted collateral for him in connection with his arrest on January 15, 1959.

Applicant-type investigations were conducted concerning Mr. Moyers in 1961 and 1964, the results of which were furnished to the White House. Those investigations established that from September 1, 1957, to January 15, 1960, Mr. Moyers was attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, from which he received a B.D. degree. The records of the Seminary give no indication that Mr. Moyers was in Washington, D. C., in January, 1959.

The President

The above is being furnished for your information and no investigation to identify and interview the unnamed sergeant will be conducted in the absence of a specific request from you.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

An Associated Press story printed in the "San Francisco Examiner" under date of October 21, states that Walter W. Jenkins will be eligible for a government pension; a Civil Service spokesman is quoted as saying, in an amount which has not yet been determined.

I wonder if the Civil Service Commission has not collectively gone out of its mind. Do you think for an instant that a man who is a known pervert, with two arrests resulting from his degraded acts, can be rewarded by the American taxpayers for his criminality?

Even Jenkins' great friend, mentor and business partner, Lyndon B. Johnson, found it necessary to demand and accept his resignation.

To give Jenkins any sort of a government pension would be a travesty of the whole Civil Service operation and would cast a shadow over it. If such a pension is granted, you may be sure that such action will come up for critical review on the floor of the next Congress. I am writing several congressmen in both parties, asking that they watch closely what the Civil Service Commission does in this matter and requesting them to air the matter thoroughly, even if it a fait accompli by the time Congress convenes.

Sincerely,

Raymond S. Richmond

JENKINS is a Lt Colonel in the USAF Reserve with a Mobilization Designation to Legislative Liaison. Active Duty tours with I&L require access to TOP SECRET. Our requester is the Office of the Secretary of the Air Staff.

2. You are being advised of this investigation because JENKINS is employed as the Administrative Assistant to Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. The investigation is completed and favorable with the exception of a lead to interview references at DO#23.

3. I have no excuse for not informing you of this case at the time of its inception. Our policy provides for you being kept advised on a current basis on cases of this type, in view of the position of the individual and the possibility of some inquiry being made of you concerning the case. I have discussed this matter with the Branch Chief and the case supervisor and all possible steps will be taken to insure that such a dereliction will not recur.

4. The possibility of embarrassment to OSI and the Air Force is minimized, of course, by the fact that the office of primary interest informs such subjects of the fact that an investigation will be made. I have issued instructions, however, that in a case such as this, personnel of the Division will contact the Security Officer in the Office of the Secretary of the Air Staff, who requests such cases for the office of primary interest (in this case I&L), to definitely ascertain whether the SUBJECT knows what is going on and to record it in our file for our own protection.

5. This memorandum is classified CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to the authority contained in paragraph 24a, AFR 205-1.
