AIDES FILES: HARRY MIDDLETON

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Scope and content note:

This collection contains materials created by Harry Middleton in his capacity as staff assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson. It reflects Middleton's duties as speech writer for domestic policy related topics, along with some foreign policy-related materials. The collection reflects Middleton's background in journalism as evidenced in correspondence, manuscripts, speeches, press releases, remarks, reports, statements, talking points, and motion picture scripts drafted by Middleton during his years in the Johnson White House.

Also included are materials related to task forces related to agriculture, antitrust, civil rights, consumer protection, crime, District of Columbia affairs, education, environment, foreign aid, health, housing and urban development, Indians, natural resources, nutrition, poverty, recreation, selective service, transportation, veterans, and other topics.

- Date range of collection: 1966-1969
- 36 linear feet, 4 linear inches
- Available for research (Open)

Series:

- Working Files, 1966 - 1969 (28 linear feet, 6 linear inches)
