PERSONAL PAPERS OF JOHN RISON JONES

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Jones, John Rison

Biographical sketch:

John Rison Jones was the manager of the Upward Bound program at the Office of Economic Opportunity in the mid-1960s. He is an Alabama historian and educator.

Scope and content note:

This collection contains materials collected by John Rison Jones during his service with the Office of Economic Opportunity's Upward Bound program, specifically in the southwest region. In addition, there is also material Jones collected during his continued work with the Upward Bound program after the operations of the program were transferred to the private consulting firm, Educational Associates, Inc. The series contains memorandums, correspondence, publications, reports, drafts, clippings, maps, lists, forms, itineraries, studies, and meeting notes. Some of the topics reflected in the series include education, legislation, travel, meetings, employees and personnel management, budget, higher education, preparatory schools, financial aid for students, directives, and policies. There is also information related to different schools and educational programs in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.
