For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Jones, John Wesley, 1907-1998

Biographical sketch:

John Wesley Jones (1907-1998) was a Foreign Service officer and diplomat. After graduating from George Washington University in 1930, he joined the Foreign Service. He served in Mexico and Italy, and was one of the last diplomats to leave China after the Communist takeover. He was director of the State Department's Office of Western European Affairs in Washington from 1953 to 1957. In 1958 he was appointed Ambassador to Libya, and he served as Ambassador to Peru from 1963 to 1969.

Scope and content note:

This collection contains correspondence, clippings, speeches, schedules, lists, notes, financial records, and photographs collected by John Wesley Jones and reflecting his activities as U.S. Ambassador to Libya, U.S. Ambassador to Peru, Deputy Commandant for International Affairs at the National War College, and a member of the Special Consultative Commission of the Organization of American States. In addition to personal correspondence, the material concerns foreign aid, personal and business travel, the international economy, military assistance, and personnel management. There is also information related to the Peace Corps' activities in Peru.
