

FOR WEDNESDAY A.M. RELEASE
NOVEMBER 3, 1965

Office of the Press Secretary to Mrs. Johnson

THE WHITE HOUSE

NOVEMBER CALENDAR
FOR MRS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson, who is spending November in Texas, will return to Washington for these engagements:

Tuesday, November 16
1:00 p.m.

Mrs. Johnson will attend a luncheon at the British Embassy honoring Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret Countess of Snowdon

Tuesday, November 16
4:00 p.m.

Mrs. Johnson hostesses a showing of a new National Gallery of Art film on American artists, entitled "The American Vision" -- film to be followed by a reception.

Wednesday, November 17
8:00 p.m.

White House dinner in honor of Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret Countess of Snowdon and The Earl of Snowdon

Thursday, November 18
11:00 a.m.

Mrs. Johnson hostesses a coffee for 11 Ambassadors' wives whose husbands have taken their posts since the last Diplomatic Reception, held May 5th

Thursday, November 18
2:00 p.m.

Mrs. Johnson participates in a Japanese cherry tree planting on the Washington Monument grounds -- this is a planting of the first quadrant of 700 trees, a gift of Prime Minister Sato of Japan. Ambassador and Mrs. Ryuji Takeuchi from Japan will make the tree presentation.

#####