

Mrs. Johnson began her day at (Place) LBJ Ranch Date Saturday, Nov. 5, 1966

| Entry No. | Time      | Activity                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|           | 11:30     | Out front in yard for President's Press Conference with Lynda, Luci, and Mrs. McNamara.                                                                                                                         |
|           | 11:52     | Posed on porch for pictures with President, Lynda, Luci                                                                                                                                                         |
|           | 12:08     | Went riding with President, Lynda, Joe Batson, Mc Namaras to the Reagan Ranch.                                                                                                                                  |
|           | 12:45     | Returned to Main House                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|           | 12:46     | Went to President's office to see pictures of President and Luci taken at the Boyhood Home hostess party.                                                                                                       |
|           | 12:59     | Lunch with President, Lynda, Luci, Joe Batson, Vicki, Simon, Mary Slater, McNamaras.                                                                                                                            |
|           | 1:25      | With President to take McNamaras to plane. Returned to Main House and took a nap.                                                                                                                               |
|           | 5:35      | With Mrs. Connor, Matianna, Mrs. Boyd toured the Main and Martin Ranches.                                                                                                                                       |
|           | 6:35      | Returned to Main House                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|           | 7:50-8:40 | Dinner with President, Lynda, Luci and Pat, Joe Batson, Vicki and Simon, Doug Caters, Sec. M John Gardner, M/M Alan Boyd, Tony Taylors, Warrie, Krims, Mr. Eugene Galland (Mrs. Krim's father from Switzerland) |
|           | 8:45      | Cedar House for coffee                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|           | 9:45      | Looked at transparencies of trip in living Room with above guests.                                                                                                                                              |
|           | 10:30     | To bed.                                                                                                                                                                                                         |