

Mrs. Johnson began her day at (Place) Luci & Pat's home, 2706 Macken, Austin Date Tuesday, 24 October 1967

Entry No.	Time	Activity
		Dictated 2 November 1967
①		Got Lyn up. Had hair combed.
	9:00	Left the house with Simone -- drove to Southwestern University, Georgetown, Texas. We were greeted by Dr. Fletcher and M/M Lord. After looking at a collection of African art, we went to the Library to participate in the presentation of Clark memorabilia and books (Luci and Pat were also there). I went up to the Second Floor, put on cap & gown, and joined the procession to the University Chapel where I received an honorary degree. (The convocation was broadcast on closed circuit TV).
②	12:45	Went to the Lords' home for an elegant luncheon on the lawn -- at my table were the Lords, Alice & George Brown, Amb/M Clark and Bishop Martin. There was a pecan tree in the center of the garden -- beautiful weather -- strolling musicians. Ed Clark gave very humorous off-the-cuff remarks.
③	3:15	Arrived back at Luci & Pat's.
	4:35	Went with Phyllis Nugent to her new apartment on Harris Blvd. to view progress of re-decorating.
	5:06	Returned to Luci's.
④	7:38	With Luci, Pat, & Lyn drove to Youngblood's Restaurant for dinner.
	8:42	Left Youngblood's alone. Drove to the Ranch.
	9:34	Arrived at the LBJ Ranch.
		Retired.

*****