

Mrs. Johnson began her day at (Place) The White House

Date Thursday, 16 November 1967

Entry No.	Time	Activity
	8:50	Breakfast.
		Rested in bed -- made several phone calls.
11:00		To Lynda's room to visit with her.
11:30		To the Treaty Room with Liz, Drew Pearson, and Harry Nannen. (Interview)
1:40		Lunch on tray in room.
2:00		To the Library where Mrs. David Rockefeller presented me with a flower book. Coffee. They left at 2:35.
3:00		Still in the Library (I had been talking with Liz there) -- Lyle Denniston and Robert Walters from the Star interviewed me about the Presidency. "I think they're out to cut us up."
3:35		With Liz to my room. Talked with her for a few minutes. Changed clothes and rested in bed -- then the President, George Christian, and Tom Johnson came in and stayed a few minutes, commented on the paintings in my room. Liz left.
4:00		Dr. Hurst came down.
4:30		Dr. Hurst left. I tried to take a nap -- did some reading in bed.

Entry No.	Time	Activity
		Signed some mail.
	6:00	Saw Mary Lasker in the West Hall -- we hung a flower painting in my room -- and went up to the Third Floor to see the Hirshhorn gift - a flower painting by Herman Rose.
	6:55	Mary left.
	7:03	To the Bowling lanes. (Lynda & Chuck came over to see me there).
	7:35	Returned to the Second Floor.
		To the Third Floor to visit with Mary Louise Young and Alice Glass Kirkpatrick in their room. Then we all went downstairs to the Second Floor Dining Room for dinner. (Meanwhile, General Westmoreland joined the President and members of Congress for dinner on the First Floor; and Mrs. Westmoreland entertained 10 of their friends for dinner in the Solarium).
	10:45-11:45	Chief Mills.
