For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Berger, William E., 1918

Biographical sketch:

William E. Berger, also known as Bill Berger, and also known as W. E. Berger, (b. June 6, 1918, Ferris, Illinois), was a journalist and newspaperman. He held positions with the Texas Water Quality Board, the State Insurance Commission and the Texas Railroad Commission. He was inducted into the Texas Newspaper Hall of Fame in 2011.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists primarily of photocopies of Texas newspaper clippings, newsletters, and articles collected by William Berger. Some of the clippings are columns and editorials, while others contain advertisements and election polls. In addition to the clippings, the material includes presidential campaign press releases and materials. The primary topic reflected in the series is the 1964 Presidential campaign between Lyndon Johnson and Barry Goldwater. One box (#15) in the collection includes Chicago newspapers published at the time of the 1968 Democratic Party National Convention.
